

Mark Cottle Spackman

October 19, 1959 - March 2, 2022

Mark Cottle Spackman was born to the late Roy Spackman and Mary Cottle Spackman on October 19th, 1959. He was immersed in the farm life and had a love for tractors from a very early age. He graduated from Skyview High School in 1978.

Mark was blessed with a large family. After being raised with 8 siblings, he continued to be blessed with nieces and nephews, and then his own family. Mark is survived by his son Casey Spackman (Shantelle) and siblings; Kristina Ping Kepperling (Robert), Mark Cody Ping (Jessica) and Valene Ping Butler (Blake). Survived by his grandchildren being his greatest joy, Keenan Spackman, Emily Robinson, Cayleen Spackman, Kaveri Spackman; LeRoy Spackman, Lilou Spackman. Tyler Keith Wall (Emalee), Preston Wall, David Kepperling, Hayden Ping, Colton Ping, Ella Rose Butler, William. Preceded in death by Brenden Ping.

After battling cancer for several years, his body found it unbearable and he has returned to the Lord on March 2, 2022

Visitation services will be Monday March 7th, 6-8pm; and a viewing 10:30-11:30 am Tuesday March 8th, followed by family prayer. A funeral service for Mark will be held on the 8th of March at 12:30pm all at the Trenton Ward Church location for his family and friends to pay their respects. There will be a grave side memorial for those wishing to attend directly after the funeral service.

We invite those wishing to give to the family to share as their hearts desire, along with contributing to Huntsman.
