

Tarbina Jorlanin

November 2, 1963 - May 13, 2021

Tarbina Jorlanin was born November 2nd 1963 in Ailonlaplap, Marshall Island. Her parents name were Anjua Loeak and Sepe Jesse. Her husband name is Richard Jorlanin was a sailor who often sailed to the outer islands where they eventually met. They eventually moved to Hawaii and they lived there for over 10 years. She did volunteer work at a hospital and she was a senior caretaker. Later they moved to Arkansas. She was a member at Pine Bluff Full Gospel. After the passing of her husband she moved to Utah. She leaves behind four daughters and two sons. Restina Jorlanin, Carson Jorlanin, Jessie Jorlanin, Lani Jorlanin, Christopher Jorlanin and Christal Jorlanin. She loved baking, hand crafting floral bouquets and traveling. Anyone who didn't know her, should know she was a caring, selfless, and a funny person. She loved her husband and she missed him dearly. She is missed and loved by many near and far. May she rest in eternal peace.

Previous Events

Funeral Service

MAY 28. 4:00 PM - 6:00 PM (MT)

LDS Church
280 West 1200 North
Logan, UT 84321